

'Gems of the Nation'

February 23, 2012 in Bangalore, News | 1 Comment

Brought tears in every bodies eyes

Bangalore: " Mummy, I am with you, Insha Allah I will bring good days to you", Ruksana (name changed), a fatherless girl student of PUC I year said, in a sorrowful voice which brought tears in every bodies eyes who were present in 'Gems of the Nation' function, organised by Karnataka Zakat and Charitable Trust (KZCT) here on Feb. 12.

The function was organised to honour students who are beneficences of KZCT and have scored more than 90% in SSLC and above classes.

KZCT working on the model of Hyderabad Zakat and Charitable Trust, is founded by Khalil Ahmed and a noted entrepreneur during 2011, KZCT has distributed 2.27 crores of rupees among 4933 students during this academic year.

Speaking on the occasion Mr. U. Nisar Ahmed, Inspector General of Police (Forest) said that if the wealthy people of the community would minimize extravaganza during marriages the education problem of the community could be solved within a few years.

Mr. S. M. Beary, advised the girl students that the great Islamic scholar Moulana Abdul Kareem Parekh had advised girl students to pursue their education either in the field of Medical Education or Teaching Faculty.

He said "In the near future teachers will be in great demand ", he also declared that if any student with meritorious results would like to continue education in the field of engineering and B.Ed. his institutions would offer free seats.

KZCT has become the prominent organisation helping students in the field of education. The organisation is conducting its affairs professionally and also emphasising on character building and creating a sense of responsibility to build the nation. To know more about the KZCT visit: www.kzct.org