Mangalore: Karnataka Zakath and Charitable Trust (KZCT) distributed scholarships worth Rs 95 lakhs to 1700 meritorious students at Loyola Hall, here on Sunday, December 11. Scholarships ranged from Rs 3000 to Rs 22000.

Khaleel Ahmed, Chairman, KZCT addressing the gathering said that getting educated was the only way of getting rid of the feeling of 'discrimination'. "Study hard and no one will discriminate against you", he noted adding that discrimination is just in the mind. He also highlighted that the girls in Muslim community were excelling better than boys and urged the boys to step up to the challenge of educating themselves.
